

REGULATIONS

of the International Animated Series Competition ANIMATOR \ 2023 in Poznań, Poland

ARTICLE 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. The International Animated Film Festival and Competition ANIMATOR is held on June 21 – July 02, 2023 in Poznań, Poland (June 21-25, 2023 live screenings in the cinema/outdoor venues, June 26-30, 2023 online screenings and July 01-02, 2023 awarded films screenings in the cinema venue). The festival will have a hybrid character - screenings or festival events will take place both in the cinema venue and online.
2. The Animated Film Festival and Competition ANIMATOR 2023 is organized by Estrada Poznańska, located at ul. Masztalarska 8 in Poznań (61-767), entered into the Register of Cultural Institutions under no. RIK VII, NIP (Tax Identification No.): 7770002010, REGON (Business Statistical No.): 000279730. The Festival's main sponsor is the City of Poznań. The Animated Series Competition ANIMATOR 2023, organized by Estrada Poznańska, is further referred to as the Competition.
3. For more information about the Festival, please visit the Festival's website: www.animator-festival.com .

ARTICLE 2. ANIMATED SERIES COMPETITION STATUTORY REQUIREMENTS

1. Film distributors, production companies, film institutions, independent artists and other entitled entities may submit feature films to the Competition. The entity submitting a film to the Animated Series Competition is further referred to as the Entrant. In order to participate in the Animated Series Competition, the Entrants are required to complete a film entry form through FilmFreeway submission platform. In the event the form is incomplete, the Entrant will have 7 days from being notified by the Organizer on this issue to complete the missing data.
2. Single episodes of TV and web animated series (including TV specials, pilot episodes, mini-series episodes & TV films) created in any animation technique (min. 51% of the film duration has to be animated), completed after December 31, 2020 may be submitted to the Animated Series Competition.
3. Only TV and web series/TV and web films may be submitted to the Animated Series Competition. In the description of the entry/submission form, the Entrant should prove that the submitted episode is part of a larger project (it is not an 'ordinary' short film) – meaning: the submitted episode is part of an assumed (pilot / special episodes) or already existing series.
4. To the Animated Series Competition only one episode per TV or web animated series may be submitted.

5. Following the decisions of Selection Board, Festival Artistic Director nominates submitted animated series episode for competition screening. Artistic Director has also the right to select animated series episode to the Competition outside the Selection Board. In this case, Artistic Director invites the producer or creator to submit animated series episode to the Competition. If the said invitation is accepted, and all formalities are met by the producer, distributor or creator, the animated series episode is qualified to enter the Competition.

ARTICLE 3. ANIMATED SERIES COMPETITION SELECTION

The Organizer reserves the right to change the number and amount of festival prizes.
5. The award is, in principle, paid in Polish zlotys (PLN). The awarded prize will be subject to tax deductions, in line with the provisions of international agreements on avoidance of double taxation to which Poland is a party. The prize will be paid after the appropriate deductions. The prize can be converted to USD or EUR, where the winner's bank does not accept money in Polish currency.
6. The winner is obliged to send back, via Post Office and in electronic form a completed & signed declaration form received from the Organizer, to the following address: ANIMATOR Festival Office, Estrada Poznańska, Masztalarska 8, PL 61-767 Poznań, Poland and e-mail address: competition@animator-festival.com. The declaration form will be sent to the winners within 7 days from the date of announcement of the competition results. The declaration must present information on the currency in which the prize is to be paid: USD, EUR or PLN. The prize will be converted into the currency stated in the declaration at the average exchange rate of NBP applicable on the date preceding the payment of the prize (making a transfer). If the winner's bank does not accept money in the currency specified in the declaration, the winner will pay any bank fees and commission.
7. The prize will be paid into bank account within 2 months from the date the Organizer receives a correctly completed declaration referred to above. The day of payment is the day of submitting the instruction to debit the Organiser's bank account.

8. The winner is obliged to send a completed and signed document for settlement purposes and payment of the prize within 2 months from the date of receipt of the declaration form from the Organizer. Failure to respond within the above-mentioned period results in the waiver of the awarded prize without the need to submit an additional statement

ARTICLE 6. SHIPMENT, INSURANCE AND RETURN OF FILMS

1. The Entrant covers transport costs of competition series episodes (festival competition copies) and any other shipment costs. The Entrant is responsible for all customs costs outside Poland. The Entrant is obliged to observe customs regulations related to series episodes transport. A pro-forma invoice amounting to max. EUR 5 should be attached to all non-EU film shipments. Packages should be provided with the following sentence "For cultural purposes only - no commercial value".
2. DCP drives (HDD/SSD), constituting competition copies, will be returned at the Organizer's expense within 2 weeks from the closing date of the Festival to the Entrant's address. Any changes in the return address must be notified to the Organizer not later than one week before the commencement of the Festival. The Organizer is not responsible for any damages resulting from giving a wrong address. The Festival is obliged to return the competition copy in a condition not worse than due to a standard use.
3. The Festival Organizer takes out insurance for the DCP competition film copies (HDD/SSD drives) against any damage, theft or third-party liability during the time they are in the Organizer's possession. The Festival Organizer is responsible for the security of competition film copies from the moment of receiving them from a transport company until their re-submission to the transport company. The Organizer's responsibility for damage or loss of competition copies is limited to the cost of making a new copy at the applicable laboratory rates in Poland (a standard copy).
4. Damage of the competition copy must be reported to the Festival Office in writing within one month from the date of its return and before the next screening at another Festival. Failure to report damage within the period specified in the preceding sentence results in excluding the responsibility of the Organizer for the competition copy.
